

For more information about college textbook pricing, please visit the following websites:

New York Public Interest Group at <http://www.nypirg.org/oncampus/> and Sticker Shock 101 Faculty Opinions about Textbook Prices, Publishers' Tactics, and Efforts to Rein in Textbook Prices available at http://www.nypirg.org/higher_ed/StickerShock101.pdf

College Textbooks: Enhanced Offerings Appear to Drive Recent Price Increases GAO-05-806, July 29, 2005, available at <http://www.gao.gov/>

The Campaign to Reduce College Costs, Textbook Action Center: Student Actions, available at <http://www.maketextbooksaffordable.org/>

www.nysconsumer.gov
1-800-697-1220

Provided as a Public Service Publication by the:

New York State
Consumer Protection Board
Advocating and Empowering NY Consumers